How to get?

Line Bus:

Alsa company (www.alsa.es) through the bus line Barcelona-Solsona or Lleida-Solsona.

Car:

From your own town you must arrive at Solsona through C-55 road. Cross the town and follow LV-4241 road towards Sant Llorenç de Morunys. Pass Lladurs and a few kilometers later turn left towards Odèn. Follow this road 7,5km; you have to cross the river. When you see a water tank, turn right and follow this path 3km to arrive to the campsite. You can go by car but is recommended a 4x4 car.

If you arrive by private bus, it can arrive until Odèn school. From Solsona we take the road LV-4241 to Port del Comte. In Coll de Jou (24km) we continue to the left by the road L-401 (14km). We will find the school in the 27th kilometer. From there we have about 3.5km walking up to the campsite.

Others:

Access by walking from Odèn School:

We take the asphalted road that leaves of the school passing by the church of Santa Cecilia de Odèn until finding an iron cross and the green indicators of the GR1 to the left. We follow this path up to the river (3km). We leave the GR that crosses the river and we continue to the right following the river. We continue for one kilometer until we reach the campsite.

Emergency plan. Each group has to write its own emergency plan.

Current legislation

Responsible person. The person responsible for the activity must be present during its realization. It is necessary to have an active contact phone 24 hours during the entire duration of the activity.

Legislation. You must comply with law Decreto 267/2016, of July 5th, on educational activities in free time for children under 18, and other applicable legislation. The group who do the activity is the last responsible for compliance with the rules of application during the development of the activity and the administrative sanctions that may arise from its non-compliance.

Insurance. It is mandatory to have civil liability and accident insurance as determined by law.

Hygiene measures and respect for the environment

Order and hygiene. It is essential to maintain spaces and existing facilities with a minimum of order and cleanliness. If, when you arrive, the campsite is in poor condition, it must be communicated to the campsite owner.

Garbage. It is necessary to do selective collection of garbage and recycle in the containers enabled near the campsite. Organic remains won't be buried under no circumstances. Oils must be saved in bottles and taken to the corresponding recycling point. Campsite and its surroundings will be cleared of paper and waste.

Rivers. It is not allowed to shower or clean dishes or kitchen utensils inside the river. You have to use biodegradable soaps for cleaning always outside the river.

Compost toilets. Latrines can be built just when the campsite doesn't offer an alternative. It's not allowed to bury toilet paper, sanitary towels or tampons; you have to throw it in the trash and leave the space properly cleaned and buried.

Construction of facilities. It is not allowed to cut trees or live tree branches without previous permission from the property. Any type of construction must be undone once the camp is finished, pick up the threads, strings and nails that have been used and return the stones and wood in its natural place. You have to put the big logs in an area where it does not bother; these logs can be useful for next groups.

Conservation of the environment. Campsite as well as the fauna and vegetation of the natural area must be respected as much as possible. It is not allowed to invade the neighbouring properties.

Coexistence with the neighbourhood. Activities that could disturb the neighbourhood or hinder its normal functioning are not allowed.

Noise. Prolonged use of loud speakers and strident music is prohibited. Between 00:00am and 07:00am, it's not allow to do activities that its noise could disturb the neighborhood or the surrounding wild fauna.
